The Great Central Coast Scavenger Hunt

1. Spy the Central Coast's famous Pelicans. Hint: Look skywards as they love snoozing on light posts.

2. Say 'Hi!' to one of our wonderful Lifeguards who keep Central Coast beaches safe.

3. Extra points: Spot a café dog having a puppuccino! Common Coastie knowledge is brekky feasts are best with fur families.

4. Eyes peeled for a Central Coast fisherman set up along our 400km of coastline.

5. Wave to Ploddy the dinosaur of the Australian Reptile Park on the M1. Usually yellow but sometimes dressed up for special occasions, you can't miss him!

6. Gaze at the glory of Norah Head Lighthouse. Fun Fact: It's the sister of the Byron Bay Lighthouse!

7. Go on a bushwalk and count all the wildflowers on your trek.

8. Walk The Long Jetty into the centre of Tuggerah Lake. Imagine all the people who've walked those wooden planks...

9. Dip your toes into Vera's Water Garden at The Entrance. It's pretty and keeps you cool on a warm sunny day!

10. Ride The Entrance Historical Carousel, a famous fair ride over 130 years old!

11. Climb The Skillion! Feeling adventurous? Coastie kids love a roll down this grassy knoll.

12. Treat yourself to a babycino at many great Coastie cafés and beachside brunch spots.

13. Discover a special place with an ancient Aboriginal rock carving, leaving it exactly as you found it.

14. Look to the ocean for a water sport trifecta: Surfer, Sailing boat and Stand up paddle boarder.

15. Wander beach rockpools to find an anemone in the crystal clear water. Careful not to touch anything unless a grown-up looks first.

16. Get a selfie with one of the 100's of colourful wall and street murals across the Coast.

17. Build a sandcastle. Extra points: Add a moat to your masterpiece.

18. Enjoy an ice cream from a classic ice-cream shop but try a totally new flavour.

19. Scoot, skate or bike along a strip of shared pathway. Wear a helmet. Wave to everyone you pass!

20. Drive through the Hinterland and buy fresh farm gate fruit. Tip: The Central Coast is known for its citrus.

Post photos of your travels across the Central Coast and make sure you tag
@LoveCentralCoastNSW and #LoveCentralCoast