Sun Valley Regional Playspace

About

The Sun Valley Regional Playspace is an inclusive playspace just 10 minutes from Gosford. The play equipment, layout and recreational features of this park make it a favourite among locals and visitors.

It's a great place to spend an afternoon enjoying a BBQ, watching children play on the range of equipment, shooting some hoops, playing table tennis, racing along the flying fox or simply sitting calmly the shade of the trees.

Overview

The thoughtful design welcomes adults and children of all abilities. Facilities include a Changing Places adult change facility, wheelchair accessible BBQs, flat solid pathways, a water drink refill station and shaded accessible picnic tables.

Experiences include:

- Double line flying fox
- Rope climbing towers
- Changing Places adult change facility
- Shaded BBQs and seating
- 2 basketball courts
- Intergenerational exercise park

Getting around

The park is located at the corner of Sun Valley Road and Dalgetty Crescent just off the main road (Avoca Drive).

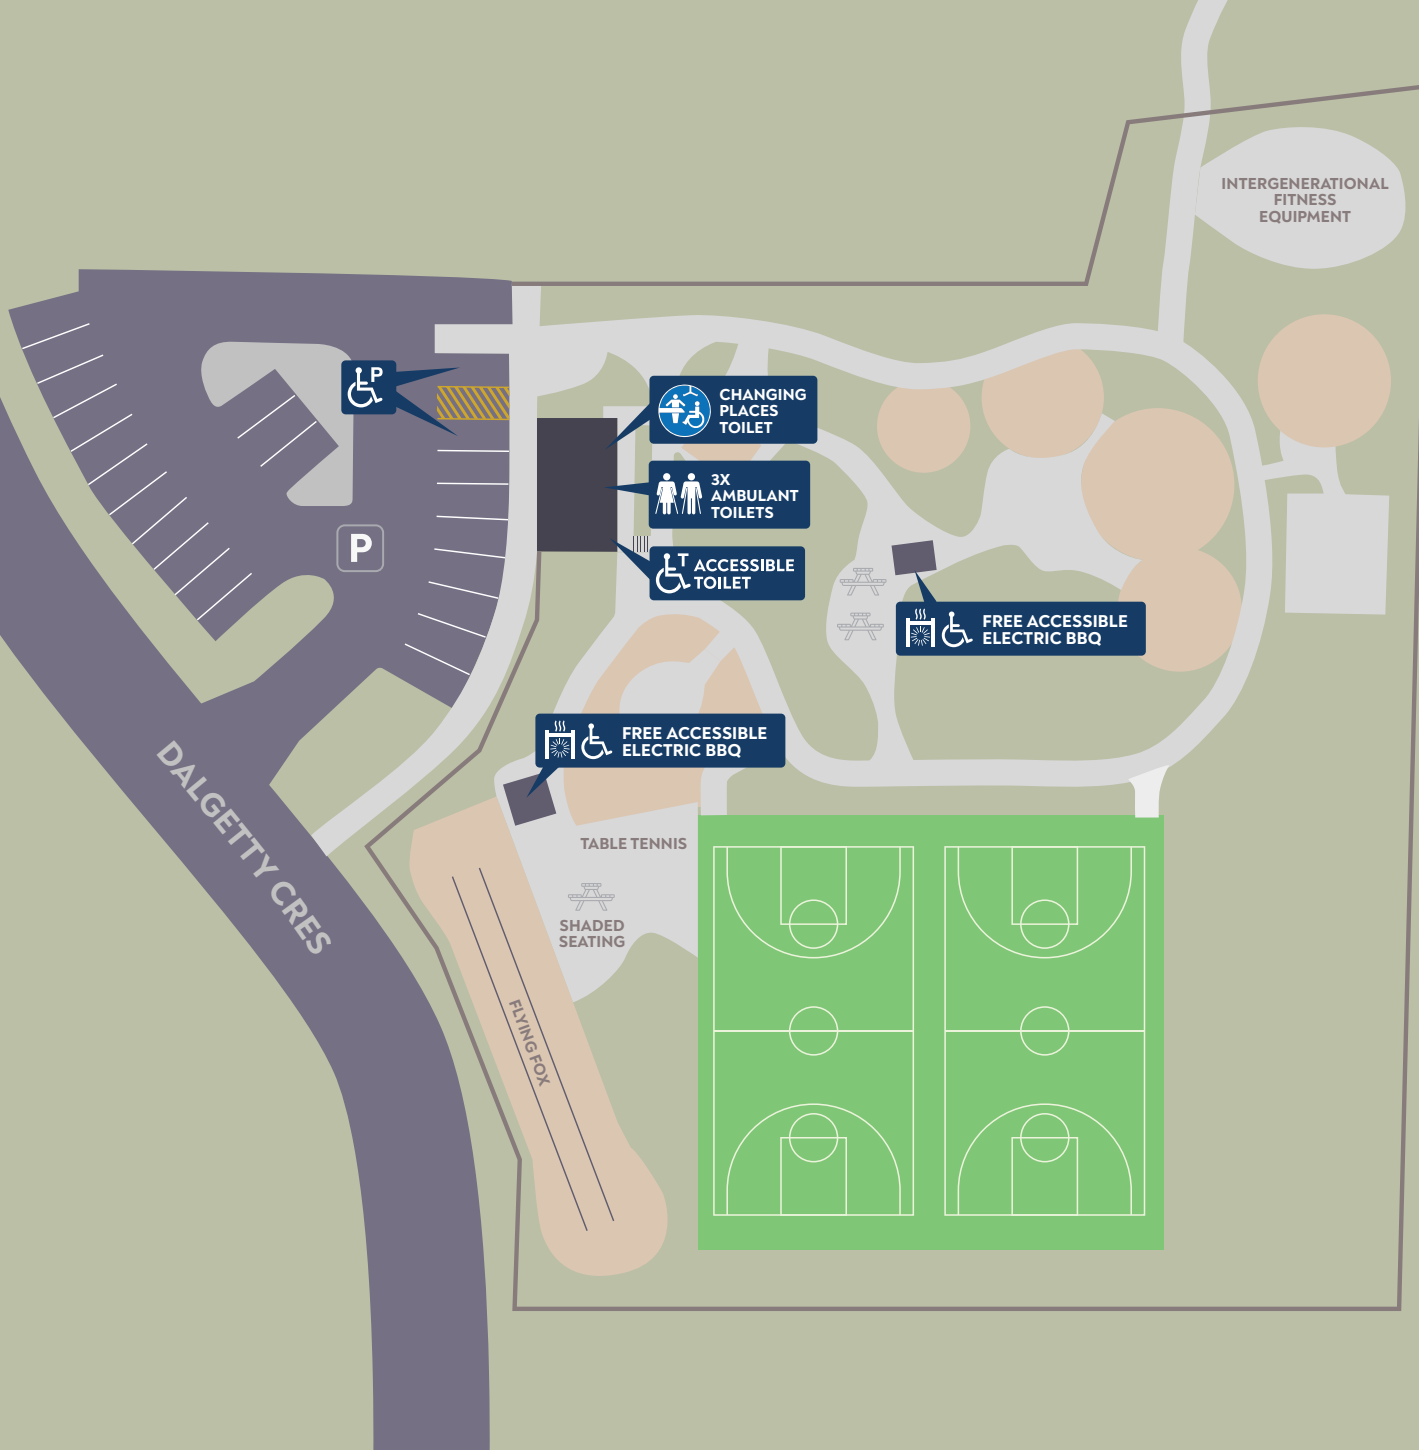

There's free off-street parking with two allocated accessible car parks, bus parking and 18 regular car parks. The playspace is located on 2 acres of land next to an open playing field.

Bus connections are nearby on Dalgetty Crescent (buses 64, 65, 66A and 66C - check accessibility information at Transport NSW www.transportnsw.info).

The entire area is flat and level with pathways connecting the parking and the entry through to the basketball courts and flying fox.

One concrete looped path connects the play equipment returning to the shaded BBQ area nearest the amenities block.

Some play areas have compacted bark surface and others a rubber composite 'soft-fall' surface. The surface under the flying fox is sand.
